Ministerial Statement

To the Federal Chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany,

This document is submitted as a brief overview of the main ministerial priorities of Germany regarding the conflict in Kosovo, it reflects German priorities and stance it should follow during the Summit.

Federal Foreign Office:

The Federal Foreign Office supports a united NATO position while continuing to prioritize diplomacy. The main goal is to stop violence and reach a stable political solution for Kosovo. The Foreign Office also stands for political pressure and negotiations remain with the actions taken by the alliance.

Federal Ministry of Defence:

The Ministry of Defence supports Germany's participation in NATO operations if necessary. Military action shall be seen as a last resort and must remain limited and controlled. The protection of civilians and the safety of German personnel are key priorities.

Federal Ministry of the Interior:

The Ministry of the Interior focuses on the possible humanitarian impact inside Germany. This includes preparing for refugees and ensuring coordination between authorities. Social stability and public order remain important during the crisis.

Overall, the ministries agree that Germany must act responsibly and in coordination with its allies. Germany supports NATO unity while maintaining its commitment to human rights and long-term peace in Europe. This document is provided as a general example for consideration.

Respectfully submitted,

Permanent Representative of the Federal Republic of Germany, to NATO's Summit.
